2.2 Past Continuous and Past Simple

We use the Past Continuous:

- to describe a longer background scene in a story, during which other main events (described in the Past Simple) took place:

At 7 p.m. Doug was working on his computer. He was sitting at his desk and downloading some photos when the lights went out.

- to talk about an action that was in progress when another action took place (for the shorter action, which happened while the longer one was in progress, we use the Past Simple):

While Meg was texting a message to her friend, she dropped her phone.

- to talk about actions in progress at the same time:

While Ann was doing some experiments, Terry was taking some measurements.
